

House an Actor!

TheatreZone is an equity theater and attracts professional performers from throughout the country, including New York, Philadelphia and particularly the Miami, Sarasota and Orlando areas of Florida. Being able to bring these talented performers to our stage is what has helped make our theater company successful, as we are known for the quality of our productions.

Only a few equity actors reside in Southwest Florida, so we must house 95% of our actors.

As part of TheatreZone's agreement with the Actors Equity union, we must provide out-of-town actors housing with:

- a bedroom of their own
- access to a kitchen (or a per diem meal allowance)

This arrangement can be provided in a hotel, empty guest home or shared space in someone's home.

We invite you to help TheatreZone's bottom line by hosting an actor or actress! They will greatly appreciate your generosity, and you will learn about what goes into producing our shows!

In addition, because TheatreZone is a 501(c)(3) non-profit charity, you may be entitled to a tax deduction for any rental income you would have earned during the time you donated this space to us.

We will also recognize your generosity as an Actor Housing Sponsor in our Showbills.

SHOW SCHEDULE

While we won't know how many actors will need housing until we finish casting the shows in late September, we do know the show dates and number of actors in each cast.

The actors are in town for three weeks, including 9 days of rehearsals (from about 5 to 10 p.m.) and 9 days of shows (from about 5 to 11 p.m.).

You can offer to host during one or more show, depending on your space availability. They would arrive the day before rehearsals start and leave the day after the last performance.
