COOl ISN'T JUST A TEMPERATURE; it's an attitude. Those of us who endure the sweltering summers in Southwest Florida know that the ability to chill out in your head is almost as important as being able to turn the A/C down a couple more notches.

FROM THE ARTIST: "Synchronized Shenanigans" is a fun, lighthearted sketch of eight playful synchronized swimmers. In reaction to a heavy political tone and the ever-present unrest in the world, I wanted to create an uplifting and humorous escape from these realities. "Synchronized Shenanigans" maintains a sense of order while still conveying a playful, mischievous, spirited moment.

Caloosa Sound Amphitheater to present "Rockin' on the River" free concert series

Located adjacent to Luminary Hotel & Co. in downtown Fort Myers, the new riverfront Caloosa Sound Amphitheater has announced Rockin' on the River, a free concert series that kicks off Tuesday, Sept. 13, with a performance by classic alternative rockers The FIXX. The free concert series runs September through December and includes three other well-known fan favorites: the classic pop rock sounds of Pablo Cruise (Oct. 30); country music legend Lorrie Morgan (Nov. 21); and contemporary swing revivalists Big Bad Voodoo Daddy (Dec. 15). All shows begin at 7 p.m., with doors opening at 6 p.m.

"We're excited to officially kick off the concert calendar at Caloosa Sound Amphitheater," said Bob Megazzini, general manager of Luminary Hotel & Co. "We felt a free concert series was the best way to introduce Fort Myers and its neighbors to this wonderful new live events venue."

"About three-quarters of Equity actors in the country live in the New York area, the world capital of musical theater," said Danni.

The 2022-2023 season, TheatreZone's 18th, is themed "romantics and rockers" for musicals with love stories both complex and light-hearted, and modern scores including beloved ballads and iconic eighties rock bands. "I built our new season with a wide audience for musical theater in mind, given the population growth of our region and new appreciation of musical theater among the young at heart," said Danni.

The season kicks off Dec. 9 with Home for the Holidays, followed by four main stage shows that originate from musical luminaries such as Stephen Sondheim, Jimmy Buffett, and Marvin Haml TheatreZone 2022-2023 Season Show Lineup

It was suggested by Ingmar Bergman's Smiles of a Summer Night, an evening of sexual musical chairs on the longest night of the year. The couples, mostly mismatched at the start, end up with more desirable partners by the final curtain. Sondheim's score features his best-known song, "Send in the Clowns." The show follows the characters over a three-year time span following the sudden closure of the hotel due to a natural disaster. The plot centers on a struggling actor who has sublet a Manhattan apartment from a friend and the current occupants — his friend's ex-girlfriend and her precocious young daughter. The famed comedy is an adventure about love and commitment, with music scored by Marvin Hamlisch and with lyrics by David Zippel. It is also known for coining the phrase "The Goodbye Girl Syndrome," which describes a woman abandoned by a boyfriend. But in The Goodbye Girl, true love blossoms and the story ends happily when the curtain falls.

It features hits by the most famous glam metal bands of the 80s including Whitesnake, Journey, Bon Jovi, REO Speedwagon, Jefferson Starship, and many more. Set in Los Angeles, aspiring rockers and actresses couple up and break up as they compete and begin to succeed. As the characters mature in the process, the musical ends on a high note with audiences cheering for them.
