Dear friends of TheatreZone,

Welcome to start of our 21st season with our 10th annual season opener, Home For The Holidays! The show is a fun, festive away to get everyone in the holiday spirit as we launch our “Hilarity & Heart” season, which features hysterically funny shows, balanced with passionate searches for romance, fame and fortune. Human relationships in all their rich complexities make comedy out of serious matters, from the feuding neighbors in Grumpy Old Men, and aspiring theatre writers in Gutenberg, to the powerful story of Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story and Oliver!

We hope our exciting line-up will give you something to look forward to – a jolt of excitement as we head together into the next 20 years with optimism, curiosity, and a sense of joy that theatre brings. But for now, let Home For The Holidays lift your spirits for this year’s festive season as you celebrate with family, loved ones and friends. All of us at TheatreZone like to think we’re who you come home to for entertainment, inspiration, and maybe most importantly, for a moment’s peace in a chaotic world.

May your days be merry and bright, and please don’t forget to tell your friends!

Sincerely,
Mark Danni

One way we express gratitude to our donors is by acknowledging them in our Showbills. For each season, we accept donations for an entire year, beginning March 1st, when season tickets go on sale, through February 28th. The timing of the donation determines the inclusion in the Showbill. In order to be featured in every Showbill of the season, we suggest making donations no later than November 30th of each year to conform to printer deadlines.
