

Media contact: Beth Preddy
239-404-5014; beth@preddypr.com

Naples' TheatreZone Holds Auditions for 2026–2027 Season

More than 50 roles available in six musicals, including the world premiere of Barcelona: The Musical

NAPLES, Fla. (July 30, 2026) – TheatreZone, a professional musical theatre in residence at Community School of Naples, will hold auditions in September for its 2026–2027 season, Love, Legacy, and the Power of Song, casting more than 50 roles in six productions.

Live auditions will be held Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 19–20, at TheatreZone in Naples. Professional performers in the New York metropolitan area may audition through TheatreZone's New York City process, with video submissions due Sept. 18 and callbacks in Manhattan on Sept. 26.

Complete audition information, including registration instructions, audition requirements, rehearsal and performance schedules, role descriptions, contract information and submission guidelines, is available at Theatre.zone/auditions.

"Each season begins with finding the artists who will bring stories to life," said Mark Danni, TheatreZone's founding artistic director. "We look forward every year to welcoming talented performers from around the country and discovering the actors who will help create another memorable season for our audiences."

The 2026–2027 season includes Broadway classics, an original holiday production, a celebrated contemporary musical, and the world premiere of a new musical by Naples' playwright Mike Ruffolo.

Auditions Will Cast These Six Productions

Cabaret

Oct. 8–11, 2026

Presented in collaboration with Florida Gulf Coast University at the FGCU Theatre Lab, the Tony Award-winning musical follows the lives of performers and patrons inside Berlin's Kit Kat Club as history unfolds around them. (Production has been previously cast.)

Home for the Holidays

Dec. 18–20, 2026

TheatreZone's original holiday musical revue returns with favorite seasonal songs, lively choreography and festive entertainment for the entire family.

Harmony: A New Musical

Jan. 7–17, 2027

Featuring music by Barry Manilow and a book and lyrics by Bruce Sussman, this moving musical tells the true story of the internationally acclaimed Comedian Harmonists.

Barcelona: The Musical

World Premiere • Feb. 4–14, 2027

Written by Naples playwright Mike Ruffolo, this original musical explores youth, love and courage in post-Civil War Spain.

Sunset Blvd.

March 4–14, 2027

Andrew Lloyd Webber's Tony Award-winning musical follows faded silent-film star Norma Desmond as she pursues one last chance at Hollywood stardom.

Leader of the Pack

April 22–May 2, 2027

The season concludes with the Broadway musical celebrating songwriter Ellie Greenwich and the hit songs that defined a generation.

About TheatreZone

Now celebrating its 22nd season, TheatreZone is an intimate professional theatre in residence at Community School of Naples, producing Broadway-caliber musicals and concerts in its 250-seat theatre. Founded by Mark Danni and Karen Molnar Danni, TheatreZone is dedicated to presenting exceptional musical theatre performed by nationally recognized professionals and emerging artists. TheatreZone operates under an Actors' Equity Association contract, attracting professional performers from across the country while also providing opportunities for qualified non-Equity artists.

For more information about TheatreZone visit Theatre.Zone.